Annual Scientific Sessions On Nursing Research 2018

Towards the excellence with innovation

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Any nursing related research abstracts are accepted.

Following themes are the preferable:

1. Quality and Safety in Nursing
2. Trends and Issues in Nursing
3. Nursing Informatics
4. Legal aspect of Nursing
*Topic No 3 and 4 for the “Plenary Discussion”.

General guidelines

Deadline:
- After the submission deadline, abstracts will not be accepted.
- Proofread abstracts carefully to avoid errors before submission and re-submissions are not accepted.
- Since all correspondences will be done via email, ensure that the email provided is accurate.
- All accepted abstracts will be scheduled either in an oral or poster presentation.
- All presentations including question-and-answers will be conducted in English.
- Abstracts submitted for consideration must be an original idea, concept, or an improvement or revision of a previous idea.
- All abstracts must be submitted (and will be presented) in English with accurate grammar and spelling suitable for publication.
- Abstracts must contain original material neither published nor presented elsewhere prior to this scientific session
- If selected, the presenter must be one of the co-authors listed.
- If multiple submissions are accepted, if there are schedule conflicts, the presenting author must arrange for a co-author to present.
Preparing an Abstract

Use the provided abstract template to write your abstract and for submission. The abstract submission form should be submitted along with the abstract.

Abstract Title
An abstract must have a short, specific title (containing no abbreviations) that indicates the nature of the investigation.

Author Name(s)
- The submitting author is designated as the primary/presenting author.
- You may rearrange the order of the authors
- If an author's name appears on more than one abstract, it must be identical on each abstract.
- All authors’ names should be carefully reviewed for accuracy.

Abstract Data
- All abstracts must be submitted (and will be presented) in English with accurate grammar and spelling suitable for publication.
- Abstracts must contain original material neither published nor presented elsewhere.
- Authors should not "split" data to create several abstracts from one.

Abstract Heading Layout
- Title of paper
- Names of authors (Underline the name of the presenting author)
- Affiliations
- Corresponding author

Abstract body format
- In Microsoft Word format
- In Times New Roman font, size 12
- Single-spaced
Abstract Text

Abstracts may have the following identifiable sections: Introduction, Hypothesis, Methods, Results and Conclusions.

- Describe briefly the objectives of the study
- Include a brief statement of methods
- State findings in detail sufficient to support conclusions.
- Do not begin sentences with numerals.
- Standard abbreviations may be used without definition.
- Nonstandard abbreviations (kept to a minimum) must be placed in parentheses after the first use of the word or phrase abbreviated.
- Do not include references, credits, or grant support.
- Do not include the names or personal information of any patient participating in the study or trial.
- Abstracts are limited to 300 words (This excludes the title or authors.)
- Do not include graphics (figures) and text-based graphics (tables)
- Use APA reference style.

Use the given abstract template to prepare your abstract
ABSTRACT

Introduction:

This template, modified in MS Word 2010 and saved as a “Word 97-2003 Document” for the PC, provides authors with most of the formatting specifications. Margins, column widths, line spacing, and type styles are built-in. Maximum word count should be less than 300 excluding topic, author names and affiliations. Simply copy and paste your relevant text using “Merge formatting” option.

Objectives:

Objectives are subsidiary to aims and the steps you are going to take answer your research questions or a specific list of tasks needed to accomplish the goals of the project.

Methods:

Steps you used to answer your research questions or a specific list of tasks needed to accomplish the goals of the project.

Results:

Include most important findings of your research which is based on the objectives and methods of the study.

Conclusions:

Restate your main points of evidence for the reader. You can usually do this in one paragraph.

Keywords: writing, template, sixth, edition, self-discipline, good (maximum 6 words)

A poster is a graphically based approach for presenting research. Authors should aim to use the poster as means for generating active discussion of the research. All Posters must be presented in English. All the authors of respective posters must be present during the poster session time. All completed posters must be handed over to the person in-charge of the respective technical sessions, before the date of presentation.

Design and layout specifications

- A heading displaying your poster title, names of authors and affiliations of authors should be positioned at top-center of the board (see Figure 1). Provide the surnames of the authors to follow the initials (Example; AB Author).

- Format should be Landscape and Poster panel dimensions: 3.5 feet (Length) X 2 feet (Height). One (01) inch border must be kept on all sides to fix the posters in supporting frames.

- Make it obvious to the viewer how to progressively view the poster. The poster generally should read from left to right, and from top to bottom. Numbering the individuals panels or connecting them with arrows is a standard "guidance system" (see Figure 1).
